

First European Research Conference on Microfinance
2-3-4 june, 2009
Brussels

The First European Research Conference on Microfinance, organized by CERMI took place in Brussels on 2-3-4 june, 2009. While Jean-Michel Servet was one of the keynote speakers, and Isabelle Guérin at the plenary session, Magdalena Villareal won the prize for the best paper of the conference. Different members of the RUME project participated to this conference.

More information on the conference:

<http://www.microfinconf.eu/>

More information on the papers presented by the members:

Bouquet, Emmanuelle “Rice inventory credit in Madagascar”, co-authored with Betty Wampfler and Eliane Ralison.

Guérin, Isabelle, “Microfinance and informal finance:substitution or leverage effect?”, co-authored with Mariam Sangare, Marc Roesch and Venkatasubramanian.

Guérin, Isabelle, “The challenges of rural microfinance. Lessons from India”, Plenary Session.

Morvant-Roux, Solène, “Access to microcredit and continuity of indebtedness dynamics in rural Mexico”.

Villarreal, Magdalena, “Social boundaries and economic dilemmas in microfinancial practices”.

Mummidi, Thanuja, “Prioritising Skill, Knowledge and Capabilities of Women in understanding motivations for Income”

Fouillet, Cyril, “Spatial Dimensions of Microfinance: An Indian Case Study”, co-authored with Britta Augsburg.